

Camphill Movement Group Meeting 2021

Healing – an individual and a community vocation

The Camphill Movement Group would like to warmly invite all members of the worldwide Camphill Movement to participate in its 2021 annual meeting online (via Zoom)!

If you are actively connected with any of the Camphill communities, regional organizations or initiatives around the world, please join us for any or all of the three open sessions of this year's meeting. Each session will include a presentation on the theme by one of our invited speakers, as well as a time to meet, talk about the presentation and share experiences in small groups with others from around the world.

The question we want to pursue together is: What does the world need from us now? How do I find my task in the world as an individual? How do we find our task as a community and as a worldwide movement? And how does the community enable us, as individuals to find and take up our task, our vocation, in the world?

The Movement Group will be meeting from Monday through Friday, May 24-29, 2021. The meetings on Monday and Friday will be a time for the delegates and invited guests to work together. The meetings on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday will open to all.

All meetings will be at the following time: 8:00am – 10:30am US/Canada East Coast

13:00 – 15:30 UK & Ireland

14:00 – 16:30 Central Europe & South Africa

19:00 – 21:30 Vietnam & Thailand

20:00 – 22:30 Taiwan & Mainland China

Tuesday, May 25: Richard Steel, Karl König Institute (Berlin)
The biography and future calling of the Camphill Movement (English)

Wednesday, May 26: Mariano Kasanetz, Seminary of the Christian Community (Stuttgart)
Individual vocation and community (German with English translation)

Thursday, May 27: Ha Vinh Tho, Eurasia Learning Institute (Switzerland & Vietnam)
Inner and outer dimensions of responding to the needs of our time (English)

If you would like to participate, please register here at the latest by Friday, May 21, 2021:
